One of the biggest blows of all for the German Navy was the torpedoing of the pocket-battleship Admiral Scheer by the submarine Spearfish. Here's the Spearfish on her return—and here are some of her men. The Admiralty communique announcing the Spearfish's success said: "It is probable that more than one torpedo hit the Admiral Scheer." At least two hits were seen.

Recently Jockey Jack Flinchum no national to-do when an apprentice jockey loses his bug (the Honor Oak Park, S. E. five-pound weight advantage allowed first-year riders, dubbed precedes the weights of bug-ridden horses on race programmes.

But Jockey Jack Flinchum, a -"Wan Chai" Stakes"-1 Mile, for baby-faced 17-year-old, who looks like an angel and rides like the devil, has in the past three months become the darling of U.S. racing fans.

WINNER AFTER WINNER

At Miami's Hialeah Park and Tropical Park, winter visitors, converging from all over country, took to the cute little Puss-in-boots as movie fans to Shirley Temple a few years ago.

Old-timers as well as race-going recruits ignored form charts, played Flinchum regardless of his mount. Booting home winner after winner, against top-notchers Eddie Arcaro and Don Meade, he was the sensation of the Florida racing season.

On the first anniversary of his first winning ride at a U.S. race track recently, little Jack -Flinchum could flook back on an imposing record: in 1,167 races-at Hot. # The Far East Conflict

JUST TWO MONTHS from today, Japan's unholy crusade in China will enter upon its fourth year. For nearly three years now, China has struggled against an invader "who has threatened to rob her of her independence and despoil her of her territories. What, then, has Japan gained from her venture into China? "To answer that question today is by no means difficult. Both from a military and economic point of view, the Japanese militarists, on whose shoulders lie the responwar in the Far East out of the memorable incident at Lokouchiao on July 7, 1937, have little to show for their thirtyfour months of campaigning against a solid and unified Chinese resistance. In fact. the hostilities have now reached such a stalemate for the Japanese invaders, that during recent months they have made no advance territorially at all. The Chinese whom they tried to subjugate by their ruthless war of frightfulness have neither been cowed by fear nor cajoled into accepting, conditions which would give the Japanese aggressors any advantage.

NEW YORK COTTON: Business was small and the tone steady. Prices hardened on the limited supply of contracts, rather than aggressive Trade buying.

NEW YORK RUBBER: Akron interests were the best buyers recently, whilst outside speculators are beginning to appear!" It is believed that most of the recent purchases were based on expectations of a 70 per cent. quota and further increase in freights. We would accumulate on any easiness.

CHICAGO WHEAT: Beneficial rains in the North-West checked the advance. The Trade is nervous but friendly, following European political news closely.

THE BIG LITTLE CORPORAL

ROME, May 6 (Reuter)-"Napoleon's attempt to invade England will certainly and soon be attempted by Germany in"this war", declared Signor Ansaldo, editor of Count Ciano's paper. Il Telegrafo, in the weekly broadcast to Italian Signor Ansaido concluded by saying, "we have already seen remarkable happenings. We shall see even a more remarkable one which will shake the pillars of the world".

Chinese Cross Fen River In Ten Columns

CHUNGKING, May 6 (Reuter)-Large Chinese forces concentrated in West Shansi have suddenly advanced eastward across the Fen River in ten columns and are attacking Japanese bases, on the Tungpu Railway, according to the latest Chinese field dispatches.

Since the Japanese launched their big drive into south Shansi on April 17 severe fighting has been going on in the Chungtiao and Talhong mountains. ..

Taking advantage of the large Japanese force being engaged in south Shansi, far away from their bases, the Chinese quietly massed troops in west Shansl, on the west bank of the Fen River, waiting for an opportune moment to strike in the Japanese rear.

By midnight of April 29 the Chinese forces crossed the Fen River in ten columns.

Meanwhile, other Chinese columns, attacked the Japanese positions at Hotsin, Chishan and Sinchiang along the north bank of the Fen River bend. By noon on Saturday, May 4, the Chinese claimed to have completed the encirclement of the Japanese forces in south-east Shansi.

BELGIUM NOT A BATTLEFIELD

BRUSSELS. May 6 (Reuter)-Betgium's determination to maintain her neutrality and independence was emphasised again by M Pierlot in a "speech at Charleron He added that "Belgium is no longer a battlefield upon whice the quarrels of other people can be settled. Her territory is a collection of fortified lines, occupled by an army ready to do everything for the defence of their homes."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

From statistics issued by Government, it was revealed. the meeting, that in 1939 Colony imported $1,865,000 worth of radio apparatus of all kinds. Some $1,150,000 of this came from the United States, $109,000 from Canada, and $250,000 from the United Kingdom.

The exports to China (including those imported through French Indo-China, Kwangchowwan, and Macao) amounted to $1,955,000 in

That the exports are greater than the imports is due to the fact that a few factories are in operati tion in the Colony where they assemble radio sets from imported parts, but the quantity of radio apparatus remaining in the Colony, after deducing the amount re-exported to China, is very small." The order is therefore, going to be more trouble than it is worth.

It was also mentioned that other British Colonies in the East, and certain French Colonies too, had experimented with restrictions on imports of radio apparatus for the purpose of conserving exchange, but found it necessary later to modify their original proposals considerably.

WAR NEWS

One member pointed out that if was desired to encourage people to listen to war news from Allied sources and, as cheap radio sets came mostly from the United States, the order will be doing much to defeat that objective.

The Chamber's representations to Government cable for withdrawal of the order, or some drastic modification, it is understood.

Doubtful Whether Norway Step Will Succeed

LONDON, May 6 (Reuter)-Commenting on the situation in Europe, the Belgian Peuple says: "Above all, we must not lose sight of the essential unity of the conflict and not be a dupe to the German tactics to isolate the adversaries and then attack one after the other."

The Swiss Gazette says: "Germany's complete occupation of southern Norway seems inevitable but it has not modified the general situation while the ultimate success of the adventure is still problematical,

"Only a month" ago Germany

DEARLY BOUGHT

"The occupation, so dearly bought by the German Navy, may present momentary economic advantages but it is doubtful whether it can compensate for the loss of all benefits which the Reich derived from their neutrality."

The Tribune says: "The Germans cannot count permanently on the superiority, of men and material with which they obtained their first successes. Stabilisation of the front in Norway will be a "great " disappointment to Berlin where a lightning victory was anticipated but is now wondering how to maintain liaison with their own expeditionary corps.

"The occupation of a few mountainous provinces cannot compensate the irreparable losses at
